Devastated, But Not Defeated

Al was born and raised in one of the most dangerous neighborhoods on the planet in North Philadelphia and by today’s standards, would’ve been labeled an “at-risk” student. When he was 5 years old he was molested by a male friend of the family.

Emotionally traumatized, it took him years to remember what happened. At the age of 15, Al’s world was torn to shreds again when he found out that his father, his childhood hero, was addicted to crack cocaine.

Today, as a tireless advocate for youth empowerment, Al is a high energy, high content, high impact speaker, lecturer, and motivational powerhouse. He serves on the Anti-Prejudice Consortium Board of Directors and he is also the former executive producer and host of his own self-development television program.

Al’s expertise in the field of soft skills as well as youth development & empowerment has been sought after by a long list of organizations and institutions including:

- ✓ University of Connecticut
- ✓ Spelman College
- ✓ Morehouse College
- ✓ Georgia Tech
- ✓ University of Georgia
